

Dedicated to Co. A. of 101st Inf.

THE 26TH DIVISION

SONG

Words and Music by

Mrs. L. B. Bent

PUBLISHED BY L. B. BENT,
11 MASON ST.,
EVERETT, MASS.

Dedicated to Co. A. of the 101st Inf.

THE 26th

Words and Music by MRS. L. B. BENT

Moderato

VOICE

PIANO mf

1. If you'll lis-ten, I'll tell you the sto - ry, Of the brave boys who died while in line, _____ They were
2. Now let us all re - mem - ber, In the days that are to come, _____ How the anxious for vic-t'ry and hon - or, To them it seemed all migh-ty fine, _____ The boys no-bly did their du - ty, And the vic - to - ry has been won, _____ Al-harder they fought the more pleas'd they did seem, For the dear ones they left be - hind. _____

though we gave our be - loved ones, To that just and hon-ora-ble cause. _____

Life to them seemed on - ly a dream When Un-cle Sam said "Fall in line!"
 Let us all stand to - geth - - er As did Un-cle Sam's lov - al sons.

CHORUS

Tempo di Marcia

When Gen-ral Persh-ing gave his or - ders, The boys all shout-ed with de - light. Ev-'ry man of us is will-ing, For the Stars and Stripes to fight, And they all went in - to bat - tle Those Twenty - Sixth boys so brave and true, May they rest in peace in No Man's Land.

